Purpose

This list identifies the third-party sub-processors Ketsko uses to provide, secure, support and administer its services where Ketsko processes personal data on behalf of a customer. Ketsko may update this list from time to time in accordance with its Master Services Agreement and applicable data protection law.

Current sub-processors

Sub-processor	Purpose	Personal data / processing	Location / transfer notes
Amazon Web Services	Cloud hosting, storage, backup and related infrastructure for the SaaS services.	Customer data hosted in the services, account and user data, system logs, backups and security records.	AWS infrastructure used by Ketsko. Hosting region and transfer safeguards are managed through Ketsko configuration and AWS data-processing terms.
Cloudflare	DNS, HTTPS/TLS, caching, content delivery, traffic routing, WAF, security and DDoS protection.	IP addresses, request metadata, headers, URLs, security logs and cached content where applicable.	Cloudflare operates a global edge network. Transfers are governed by Cloudflare data-processing terms and applicable lawful transfer mechanisms.
Google Workspace / Gmail	SaaS-related email communications, customer communications, internal business email, document handling and business administration.	Business contact details, email content and attachments, customer communications and documents shared with Ketsko by email or Workspace tools.	Google infrastructure and Google Workspace data-processing terms apply, including applicable lawful transfer mechanisms.

Ketsko-operated systems

Ketsko's own SaaS platform is operated by Ketsko and is not listed as a sub-processor. Customer support and ticket handling may be managed through Ketsko's own SaaS platform.

Updates and notice

Ketsko may add, replace or remove sub-processors where needed to provide, secure, support or administer the services. Material changes will be handled in accordance with the Master Services Agreement and applicable data protection law.
