

Website Data Protection Policy

The Cetsco website allows you to send us your contact information to us which can optionally contain your personal information. Any information you send us is only used within Cetsco, and we only use it to communicate with you.

At Cetsco the data we store is kept to a minimum, this helps us secure and maintain control of persona data. We will not store you information any longer than is necessary for us to conduct business with you and fulfil our legal obligations. We maintain our data as part of our communications with you. So we ask that you let us know if there is a change to your contact information or if you would like to discontinue any of our conversations.

Request an implementation

When you request the use of a Cetsco product/service, all data submitted to Cetsco is processed in accordance with the product/service terms and conditions and is deleted once the contract terminates.

Website forms

Here are some examples of how we use the information you send in the website forms. The website forms do not require any personal information to be submitted. Also, everything you can do on the website can also be arranged by emailing support@cetsco.com.

Contact Us

The Cetsco website allows you to send us your contact information to us. You can request information about our products, questions. This information is only used to follow through to ensure you get the information you requested.

Suggestions

We love to hear how we can improve, so when you submit a product/service suggestion we like to follow up with you to ensure that we understand your suggestion fully. And as part of that conversation we may inform you of any changes we make related to your suggestion.

Request a demo

When you request a demo you are requesting that we arrange a time when you can get a demonstration of Cetsco product/services. We like to hear about the business problem you are trying to solve so the demo addresses the your issues and does not waste any of your time.
